HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK

MATT'S CRYSTAL BALL

what our local produce purchaser predicts

Coming back from Thanksgiving celebrations this week, we're so grateful for all our local-loving partners, including our customers, who invest in the regional food system alongside us, crafting delicious dishes with the freshest ingredients and highlighting the hard work and passion that goes into producing local food on their menus

We're also thankful for the over 40 local farms and food businesses we have the privilege to work with through our Local Food Connection program in Colorado, without whom we would have none of this incredible harvest to deliver throughout the region.

Together, we're championing the value of local food, and we recognize the dedication it takes from all sides to sustain local agricultural and culinary traditions.

We are thankful for you!

Plus check out:

- more seasonal specialties from smaller farms - pp. 2-3
- commodities currently filled from local sources - p. 4
- local sprouts, microgreens, and edible flowers - p. 5
