OUR SMALL FARM PHILOSOPHY

We believe small family farmers, with their deep caring and passion for the animals, are the best at raising them. That's why we partner with farmers like the Rhodes family to raise our Naked Chickens.

Support for Joyce Farms and our partner farms promotes:

- ✔ A Strong Local Agriculture Economy
- ✔ Environmental Sustainability
- ✔ Traditional Farming Methods
- ✔ Animal Welfare

Jenny Rhodes (center) and her two sons own and operate one of the farms where our Naked Chickens are raised. Jenny is a long-time leader and educator within the poultry and agriculture industries.
