HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK

ANNA'S CRYSTAL BALL

what our local produce purchaser predicts

🔮 Crystal Ball: The Season Is Opening Up

This week marks a clear shift—volume is building, new crops are arriving, and the season is starting to move toward summer.

🍅 Early Crops Stepping into the Spotlight

- Heirloom tomatoes are increasing in volume with great flavor and color.
- Baby pattypan squash has begun, adding an early specialty crop.
- Zucchini, yellow squash, and cucumbers are still limited but steadily improving.
We're not at peak supply yet, but summer crops are clearly on the way!

🌿 Greens Continue to Deliver

- Cooking greens remain consistent and plentiful, continuing to balance the more limited, emerging items and offering nutrition and versatility.

🧄 New This Week

- Green garlic is here briefly—a fleeting seasonal item—grab while you can!
- Green cabbage, red cabbage, and broccoli have started in limited supply and will continue ramping up.

🌱 What This Means

We're seeing stronger volumes, new staples coming on, and short-season items worth seizing. Availability and variety are expanding as we move into the next phase of the season ✨

Find the NEWEST local picks starting this week below, and then check out:

- more seasonal specialties from smaller farms - pp. 2-3
- local sprouts, microgreens, and edible flowers - pp. 4-8
